

CELEBRATIONS OF ARMISTICE DAY BE NATION WIDE

(By Associated Press.)
Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 26.—Posts of the American Legion throughout the United States are arranging for celebrating the third anniversary of Armistice Day. The national headquarters of the Legion here has received information from the posts and from units of the Women's Auxiliary which indicates that interest in the proper observance of this new American holiday is widespread.

Large public meetings are being arranged in many communities and more than a thousand Legion posts will stage symbolic pageants. Plans have also been completed for large meetings in New York, San Francisco and Chicago at which the audiences, by means of amplifiers used in connection with long distance telephone wires, will hear the addresses made at the burial services in Washington for an unknown soldier.

John G. Emery, national commander of the Legion, today issued the following statement to Legionnaires regarding Armistice day celebrations.

"At eleven o'clock on the morning of November eleven nineteen hundred and eighteen an entire world, weary and worn, bent under the disaster of the world's war, knelt in thanks to God. The guns ceased booming. The roar of their firing no longer smashed around the world in terrible thunder. A new note was in the air, high, clear and strong, a symphony of joy. A new hope was in every heart, a hope and a prayer that the fighting of nation against nation, of people against people had ended for all time.

Three years have passed. We are about to celebrate the third anniversary of that occasion when, for the last time, the runner dashed across the field of death and carried to the farthest outpost the order 'cease firing.' We want to go back in spirit and thought to that grand moment. We want to recall, in full, the purpose common to every one at that moment to do each his or her share to make impossible, ever again, such a disaster. Let us do this in celebrations that will include every American citizen.

"We want to recall the thrill that came to each of us, whether at the front or at home, in the knowledge that we had done our duty. We want especially to turn aside from the routine of daily life and to remember the sacrifices of those whose pride it was that they gave of their dearest and best, and of those among us, torn and crippled, who gave of themselves. These are our heroes—our living monuments to American ideal, to American principles, to American citizenship."

General Julien S. Carr Is New Head Confed Veterans

(By Associated Press.)
Chattanooga, Oct. 26.—General Julien S. Carr, of Durham, N. C., was elected commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans to succeed K. M. Van Zandt, of Texas and Richmond Va., was chosen as the next reunion city at the closing session here tonight of the veterans reunion.

The annual parade, the big event of the reunion, will be held tomorrow.

Commander Van Zandt delivered a brief valedictory to the veterans. The reunion went on record with a declaration that "these reunions would be continued from year to year so long as there are as many as four veterans left alive and able to travel to the reunion city and so long as the people of southern cities see fit to invite them to come."

Palatka Party Is Painfully Injured on Daytona Road

While returning from Daytona to Palatka Tuesday night C. A. Hedger, J. A. Tyson and another friend were more or less injured when the car, driven by Mr. Hedger, struck a tree which had blown across the road and was almost totally wrecked. Mr. Hedger and Mr. Tyson were badly cut by flying glass and their guest, who was seated in the tonneau, was more or less bruised.

Mr. Hedger's injuries were the more painful. His left hand was severely lacerated and he was bruised about the right side. Mr. Tyson suffered a badly cut lip and several smaller cuts on the head and face.

At the time of the accident Mr. Hedger had on his dimmers, and was attempting to pass another car, which had stopped. He did not see the tree until right on it, and crashed into it while driving at about fifteen miles an hour. The car was so badly wrecked that Mr. Hedger preferred to salvage the tires, battery and other movable parts rather than bear the expense of moving the chassis. The three men were brought to the city by Miller Stockton, who happened to be passing at that time.

MOOSE HAVE FINE MEET

A fine meeting of the Palatka lodge of Moose was held last night when plans were made for a big meeting two weeks hence when refreshments will be served. A full attendance is requested at that time.

EXPULSION OF BLANTON TO COME UP IN HOUSE FOR A VOTE AT NOON

(By Associated Press.)
Washington, Oct. 26.—The house of representatives was up in the air tonight over the method of procedure tomorrow on a resolution calling for the ousting of Representative Blanton, Democrat, Texas, notwithstanding a statement by Representative Mondell, of Wyoming, the Republican leader, that it would be called up.

In the face of a plea from Republicans and Democrats for a resolution providing only for severe condemnation and censure Mr. Mondell declared he would not turn back.

"The resolution to expel Mr. Blanton for causing to be printed in our highest government publication of offensive and obscene matter," said Mr. Mondell, "will be called up at noon tomorrow. Mr. Blanton will be given an hour in his own defense. Four fifths of the Republicans will vote for his expulsion, I expect about two hours of debate on the resolution which cannot be amended or put aside for a substitute, and I believe it will be adopted."

There were claims, however, by some Republicans and Democrats that the two third vote necessary to expel would be lacking and for this reason they urged a resolution of censure. Those insisting upon the latter course asserted that a resolution of censure calling also for a public rebuke by the speaker would be put through with few, if any, dissenting votes.

Returning to his seat in the house late today Blanton made an attempt to speak but was prevented by a parliamentary situation in which the charges against him were in no way affected.

At the Grand

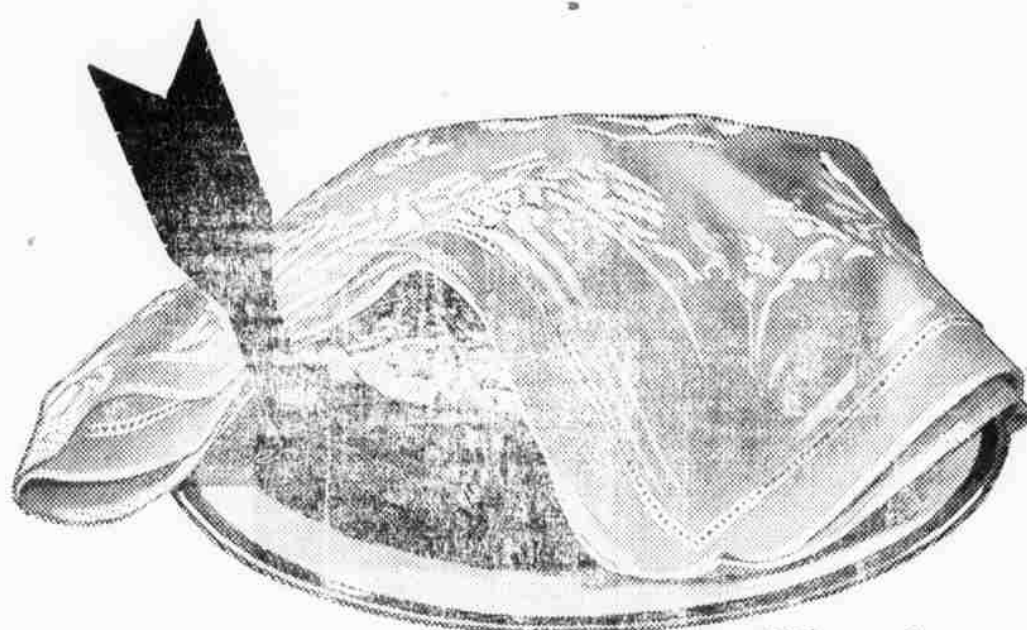

Lovers of sensible and wholesome photoplay entertainment will find a picture just to their liking at the Grand theatre where Elaine Hammerstein is presenting "Remorseless Love," a screen drama based on Mary Lanier Magruder's story. Backed by the rugged and beautiful settings of nature, with very few "sets" or artificial framings, there is a story told with connected detail and without frills or distracting episodes dragged in to make a "movie" holiday.

Miss Hammerstein this time plays the role of a school teacher who has set her face against the traditions of her tribe and kind—she hates feuds as useless, cruel and uncivilized. She looks mighty nice, too, in the plain garb for which she has discarded the usual habiliments of society with its dinner gowns and ballroom "atmosphere." She matches the trees and rocks as well as she fits into a parlor scene.

Niles Welch acts a manly part as Miss Hammerstein's leading man. He looks well, acts like a human being and in diverse scenes with Miss Hammerstein the couple seem to blend their interest into the one purpose of making their scenes effective.
